Dear [REDACTED]

Request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000

I write further to your request for information which was received on 12 August 2026, to confirm, in accordance with S.1(1)(a) of the Freedom of Information Act 2000, that Powys Teaching Health Board (PTHB) does not hold the information that you require. For ease of reference your request is set out below and the Health Board's response follows each question individually.

Your Freedom of Information (FOI) Request:

I am writing to you under the Freedom of Information Act to request the following information. This request concerns placental growth factor (PIGF)-based testing—including standalone PIGF assays and sFlt-1/PIGF ratio tests—for suspected pre-eclampsia.

Please provide:

Q1. Whether the Health Board currently offers PIGF-based testing.

Q2. The hospitals or maternity services where it is available.

Q3. The test and manufacturer used, and whether testing is performed in-house or by another laboratory.

Q4. The number of tests performed or ordered in 2023/24, 2024/25 and 2025/26 to date.

Q5. A copy or link to the current clinical guideline or pathway governing its use.

Q6. If testing is not available, whether there are any recorded plans to introduce it.

Powys Response:

Powys Teaching Health Board does not offer PIGF-based testing and therefore this is a nil response. Please note, we do not have District General Hospital services (DGH) within the county. In Powys we provide midwifery-led maternity services, and our residents access their acute and specialist services including consultant-led obstetric services in a DGH provided by neighbouring health boards in Wales and NHS Trusts in England. The table below lists the main health boards and NHS Trust from which we commission health services for Powys residents. Please note that all providers may not necessarily offer services that fall within the definition in your request.
