Dear [REDACTED]

Request under the Environmental Information Regulations 2004

I write further to your request for information, which was received on 26 March 2026 to confirm, in accordance with S.1(1)(a) of the Environmental Information Regulations 2004, that Powys Teaching Health Board (PTHB) does hold the information that you require. For ease of reference your request is set out below and the Health Board's response follows.

Your Environmental Information Regulations (EIR) Request:

I am writing to you under the Freedom of Information Act to request the following information: I am looking for information about staff car parking charges at your trust. Would you be able to answer the following questions please?

Q1. Does your trust charge staff to park in its car parks?

Q2. What does a month's parking cost for a band 5 registered nurse (top step point) on a full-time contract at your trust if they have permit? If it is different at different sites, please specify. Not applicable.

Q3. What does a day's parking cost for a band 5 registered nurse (top step point) at your trust if they do not have a permit?

Q4. Are permits available for all staff who want them?

Powys Response:

Q1. I can confirm that Powys Teaching Health Board (PTHB) does not charge staff to park in its car parks. Parking at all PTHB hospital sites is free for staff, patients, and visitors.

Q2 - Q4. Not applicable.

If you are dissatisfied with the handling or response to your request, you have the right to ask for an internal review. Should you wish an internal review, please quote the reference number and send your correspondence to the above address.

If you are not content with the outcome of the internal review, you have the right to apply directly to the Information Commissioner for a decision. The Information Commissioner can be contacted at:

Re-use of Public Sector Information

All information supplied by the Health Board in answering a request for information (RFI) under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 will be subject to the terms of the Re-use of Public Sector Information Regulations 2015.

Under the terms of the Regulations, the Health Board will licence the re-use of any or all information supplied if being used in a form and for the purpose other than which it was originally supplied. This license for re-use will be in line with the requirements of the Regulations and the licensing terms and fees as laid down by the Office of Public Sector Information (OPSI). Most licenses will be free; however, the Health Board reserves the right, in certain circumstances to charge a fee for the re-use of some information which it deems to be of commercial value.

Further information including a sample license terms and fees can be found at Open Government Licence.

Yours sincerely

Wayne Tannahill

Associate Director of Capital, Estates and Property
